

INDEX

TO THE

TWO HUNDRED AND NINTH VOLUME OF THE QUARTERLY REVIEW.

[Titles of Articles are printed in heavier type. The names of authors of articles are printed in italics.]

A.

- Acland, A. H. D., introduction to 'The State and Old Age Pensions,' 150.
- Africa, South, result of the grant of self-government, 256—grievances of the 'retrenched' British officials, 257—Chinese labour, 258.
- Africa, South, Some Impressions from, 432—relations between the two races, ib.—divergence of native policy in the states, 435—Cape Colony, ib.—history of the Transvaal, 436—the Outlanders, ib.—Lord Milner's policy of reconstruction, 437—introduction of the Chinese, ib.—antagonism between capital and labour, 438—result of the Het Volk alliance, 439—441—Boers, Afrianders and Hollanders, 441—changes made by the capitalists, 442—ascendancy of the Dutch, 442—445—frontier problems, 446—relations with the mother-country, ib.
- Agricultural Co-operation, 299—influence of politicians, 300—the future of farming, 301—advantages of co-operation, 302, 310, 316—318—result on the Continent, 303—number of societies in Denmark, ib.—in Ireland, 304—in England, 306—308, 313—higher prices, 308—sale of eggs and milk, 309—advantages of the motor service, ib.—sale of inferior manures and feeding stuffs, 311—number of 'dealers,' 312—equality of small holders, 313—amount of sales, 314, 318—number of acres, 314, note—sales of the Eastern Counties Farmers' Association, 318—educational methods, 319.
- Alfonso XI, King of Castile, 'Libro de la Monteria,' 346.
- Archbold, J. D., 'The Standard Oil Company: Some Facts and Figures,' 468, note.
- Armstrong, Edward, 'A Grand Tour in the Sixteenth Century,' 123.
- Army, condition of the, 252.
- Arundel, Charles, his career, 92—plot for the invasion of North Somerset, ib.
- Ashby, Thomas, 'The Rediscovery of Rome,' 101.
- Asquith, Rt Hon. H. H., M.P., his 'Bill to Provide for Old-age Pensions,' 157—passed in the House of Commons, 167—character of his Cabinet, 251.
- Avebury, Lord, 'On Municipal and National Trading,' 416, 425.
- Avenel, M. le Vicomte G. d., 'Aux États Unis,' 472, note.
- Aves, E., 'Co-operative Industry,' extract from, 316.

B.

- Baildon, W. P., 'The Black Books of Lincoln's Inn,' edited by, 365.
- Baillie-Grohman, W. A., 'Medieval Sport,' 343.

- Barry, Rev. W.*, 'Forecasts of Tomorrow,' 1.
- Baylis, T. H.*, 'The Temple Church,' 377, note.
- Beatis, Antonio de*, his diary of Cardinal of Aragon's travels, 123. See Tour.
- Beaumont and Fletcher*, extract from 'Beggars Bush,' 393.
- Bedwell, C. E. A.*, 'The Inns of Court,' 364.
- Beer, G. L.*, his monograph on 'British Colonial Policy,' 323.
- Beggars, Vagrants, and Tramps*, 388. See Vagrants.
- Bengal*, result of the partition, 228.
- Bigod, M.*, his model of the city of Rome, 110, note.
- Birthrate*, decline of, 7.
- Bismarck, Prince*, influence of his methods on Anglo-German relations, 272.
- Blackley, Canon*, his National Provident Insurance scheme, 152.
- Blake, Admiral*, his ancestors, 94—career, 95—character, ib.
- Blaze, E.*, 'Le Livre du Roy Modus et de la Roynne Racio,' 345—number of copies, 353.
- Blois*, palace of, 130.
- Boni, G.*, his reports on the Forum excavations, 104—result, 106, 112.
- Booth, B.*, on the number of children condemned to a tramp life, 405—his pamphlet, 'The Abandoned Child,' 408.
- Booth, C.*, 'Pauperism and the Endowment of Old Age,' 147—his scheme for an universal pension of 5s. per week, 147, 150.
- Boutwell, G. S.*, on the annexation of Canada to the United States, 187.
- Brabrook, Sir E.*, 'Provident Societies and Industrial Welfare,' 161.
- British School at Rome*, Papers of the, 118—investigations, 120.
- Bryan, Mr.*, candidate for the Presidency, 449—views on tariff revision, 463—policy, 475.
- Buchanan, H. B. M.*, and J. J. Willis, 'To Manure at a Profit,' 301.
- Buchan, John*, 'Lady Louisa Stuart,' 194.
- Bilow, a Rejoinder to Prince*, 576. See German Peril.
- C.*
- Campbell-Bannerman, Sir H.*, his plan for old-age pensions, 148—criticism on his administration, 249.
- Canadian Problems and Parties*, 168—number of immigrants, 169—character, 170—regulations, ib.—nationalities, 171—employment of Chinese in British Columbia, 172—Japanese, 174—Hindus, 175—racial differences, 177—French Canadians, 177—179—duties in regard to Imperial defence, 179—181—railway construction, 181—wheat-growing area, 182—banking system, 183—industrial depression, 184—crops in the north-west, ib.—transport system, 185—tariff policy, 186—trade relations with the United States, 187—Great Britain, 188—France, 189—Germany, 190—development of labour organisation, ib.—railway regulation, 192.
- Chamberlain, Rt Hon. J., M.P.*, his plans for an old-age pension, 147.
- Chaplin Committee* old-age pensions scheme, 153.
- Charles IX, King of France*, 'La Chasse Royale,' 362.
- Chatham, The First Earl of*, 321—works on, 321—324—his birth and early years, 325—enters Parliament, ib.—opposition to Walpole, 326—to Carteret, ib.—Paymaster-General, 327—misconception of his principles, 327—329—dismissals from office, 329—Secretary of State, ib.—marriage, 330—unfavourable view of his character and aims, ib.—relations with Newcastle, 331—quarrel with Fox, ib.—influence on the Administration of 1757—1761; 332—334—military system, 334—personality, 334, 342—genius, 336—character of his policy, 336—339—result of his resignation, 339—the last fourteen years of his career, 340—limitations, 341.
- Chaucer, G.*, his connexion with Somerset, 97.
- Chevreur, H.*, 'La Chasse Royale,' edited by, 362.
- Chinese immigrants*, employment of in British Columbia, 172—South Africa, 258.
- Choate, J.*, elected an honorary Bench of the Middle Temple, 387.

- Clark, Mrs G., 'Gleanings from an old Portfolio,' edited by, 195.
 Clinton, Miss L., letters from Lady Louisa Stuart, 200, 206.
 Colquhoun, Dr F., on the system of a National Friendly Society, 151.
 Cooke, John, 'Vagrants, Beggars, and Tramps,' 388.
 Corbett, J. S., 'England in the Seven Years' War,' 323.
 Cromer, Lord, 'Modern Egypt,' 28—style and object of the book, ib. See Egypt.
 Crosse, Sir R., his home at Charlinch, 90—career, ib.
 Curzon, Lord, his reform of the universities of India, 226—unpopularity, 228—his share in the partition of Bengal, 229, 231—233—resignation, 233.
 Cycle or 'Poetry of Homer,' 59. See Homer.

D.

- Daniel, S., his history of the Wars of the Roses, 98.
 Darwin, Leonard, 'Municipal Trade,' 409.
 Dasent, A. I., his 'Life of John Delane,' 532—eulogies on him, 534—536.
 Davies, W. H., 'The Autobiography of a Super-tramp,' 393.
 Davies, Prof. R., extract from 'Early Buddhism,' 536, note.
 Dawson, W. H., 'The German Workman,' 155, 164.
 Denmark, system of old-age pensions, 155, 160.
 Delane, John, publication of his Life, 532—his qualities, 532, 536—reply to John Bright, 533—style, 534—during the Crimean War, ib.—number of pronouncements, 536—education, ib.—equality in society, 537—management of the 'Times,' ib.
 Delbrück, Herr, his reply to the 'Quarterly,' 581, 589, 590.
 Denmark, number of agricultural co-operative societies, 303, 310.
 'Diary of a Working Farmer,' extract from, 301.
 Drake, Sir F., anecdote of, 89.
 'Dreadnought' type of battleship, evolution, 482.
 Dugdale, his 'Origines Juridiciales,' 367, 377.

E.

- Education Bill, result of sectional pressure on, 259.
 Edward VII, King, elected a Bencher of the Middle Temple, 386.
 Egerton, Professor, his introduction to Dr von Ruville's 'William Pitt, Earl of Chatham,' 322.
 Egypt, The Revival of, 28—style and object of Lord Cromer's 'Modern Egypt,' ib.—period covered, 29—misgovernment of Ismail Pasha, 30—British diplomacy, ib.—failure of the reformed administration, 31—attitude of Mr Gladstone's Ministry, 32—37—character of Lord Granville, 33—result of the refusal to land troops at Alexandria, 35—the Northbrook Mission, 37—39—General Gordon's Mission, 39—43—policy in the Soudan, 41—44—summary of reforms, 44—view on the policy of evacuation, 45—growth of nationalism, 47, 49—attitude of the Moslems towards British rule, 48—their administrative capacity, 50—system of Capitulations, 51.
 Election, Presidential, of 1908, 448. See Presidential.
 Elizabeth, Queen, repressive measures against vagrants and beggars, 399.
 Elliot, R. H., 'Agricultural Changes, and Laying Down Land to Grass,' 319.
 Endangered Sea Supremacy, Our, 476. See Sea.
 England, number of agricultural co-operative societies, 306.
 Erasmus, extract from his 'Beggars' Colloquy,' 392.

F.

- Fletcher, Rev. R. J., his introduction to the 'Pension Book of Gray's Inn,' 365.
 Forecasts of To-morrow, 1—'Zarathustra,' ib.—influence of history, 3—views of Dr Petrie, 4, 26—mind and character, 4—characteristics of the French, 5—the English gentleman, ib.—loss through emigration, 6—character of the latter-day Briton, ib.—declining birth-rate, 7—limitations of the State, 8—danger of enforced combination, 9

- system of education, 10—drifting into State Communism, 11—13
- benefits of freedom of labour, 13
- Mr Wells' 'Anticipations,' 14, 26
- meaning of the term 'Democracy,' 14—stockjobbing, 15—electricity, 17—religion, ib.—marriage, 18—22—Herr Hentschel's 'Varuna,' 22, 26—changed nature of property in land, 23—rise of the proletariat, ib.—less developed type of people, 25.
- Foreign Office, policy of the, 253.
- Fortescue, Hon. J. W., 'A History of the British Army,' 323.
- Fortescue, Sir J., his treatise, 'De Laudibus Legum Angliæ,' 368.
- France, trade relations with Canada, 189—result of the struggle for seapower with England, 267—number of agricultural co-operative societies, 303—the source of the chase or venery, 345—the beggars of, 394—naval programme, 486.
- Freeman, Prof., his knowledge of the architecture of Somerset, 83.
- G.
- Gaillon, palace of, 130.
- Gaston III, Count of Foix and Béarn, 'La Livre de Chasse,' or 'Gaston Phœbus,' 350—354—illuminations, 352—number of copies, 353.
- German Peril, The, 264—relations with England, 265 et seq.—Imperial policy, ib.—result of the struggle between England and France, 267—Influence of German professors, 269, 283—Heinrich von Treitschke, 269—271—policy of Bismarck, 272—274—expansion of trade, 274—policy of William II, 275—antagonism, 276—ascendency in the East, ib.—outbreak of the Boer war, 277—Navy Bills, 277, 280, 295—support of the policy of increasing the navy, 278—280—aim of the Navy League, 280—result of the Emperor's visit to England, ib.—continued hostility towards, 281—relations with the Radical Cabinet, 282—tactics adopted by Prof. Schiemann, 283—286—Irish-German alliance, 284—Pan-Islamic movement, 285—288—railways, 287—hostility to British Imperial union, 289—characteristics of the race, 289, 298—principle of the Pan-German doctrine, racial reunion, 290—increase of population, 291—belief in the inevitable dissolution of the British Empire, 292—ideal of centralised strength, 294—gain by immigration, ib.—result of invasion, 295—intelligence system, 296—finances, ib.—taxable capacity, 297.
- German Peril, The: a Rejoinder to Prince Bülow, 576—a violent reply, 577—Prince Bülow's points taken seriatim, 578 et seq.—the English authorities, 578—Herr Rudolf Martin's chauvinism, 579—German air-fleets, 580—German peace for thirty-seven years, 580—582—Herr Delbrück's reply, 581, 590—Germany's exposed geographical position, 582—the Hohenlohe memoirs, 583—theory of the German state, 586—Anglophobe writings, 586—590—the Kruger telegram, 588—Treitschke and his school, 589—the Navy Bill of 1897; 591—effect of the Boer war on German activity, 592—infamous cartoons, 595—the question of the professors, 595, 596—preparation for war and peace, 598.
- Germany, system of old-age pensions, 155, 163—trade relations with Canada, 190—number of agricultural co-operative societies, 303—naval expansion, 480—number of members of the League, 481—the new Navy Act, 482, 489—expenditure, 488—naval position, 491—distribution, 492—financial policy, 496—personnel, ib.—construction, 497—500.
- Gladstone, W. E., result of his policy in Egypt, 32.
- Government, A Reckless, 249—criticism on Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman, ib.—character of Mr Asquith's Cabinet, 250—252—condition of the army, 252—the navy, 253—Foreign Office, ib.—the Indian problem, 254—policy in South Africa, 255—258—Influence of sectional pressure, 259—263—Education Bills, 259—Plural Voting Bill, 260—Trade Disputes Act, ib.—Irish policy, 261—Licensing Bill, ib.—old-age pensions, 262—Irish Universities Bill, 263.
- Grafton, Duke of, his 'Autobiography,' 324.
- Grant, J., extract from 'The Great Metropolis,' 527.
- Great Britain, trade relations with Canada, 188—with Germany, 264,

Greswell, Rev. W., 'The County of Somerset,' 78.

Grote, G., his admiration for democracy, 524—view of the Sophists, 526.

H.

Hadleigh colony, 407.

Harman, his book 'Caveat or Warning for Common Cursetors valgarly called Vagabones,' 400.

Henry VIII, King, vagrancy and begging in the reign of, 397—repressive measures, 398.

Hentschel, W., 'Varuna,' 3, 22.

Hohenlohe, Prince, extracts from his letters, 289.

Home Counties, 'Agricultural Co-operation,' 299.

Home, Hon. J. A., 'Letters of Lady Louisa Stuart,' edited by, 195.

Homer, The First, 53—meaning of the name, 54—the two poems the Iliad and the Odyssey, ib.—date of 'The Poetry of Homer,' 55—influence on the system of education, 56-58, 70—ordinance respecting the book, 58—the 'Cyclos,' the 'Circle,' or 'Round,' 59—material and subject, 61—authorship, 62-64, 75—explanation of the name, 62—instances of peculiarities in the Iliad, 64-69—the 'Sending of Patroclus,' 66-69—traces in the Odyssey of a 'harmonist,' 71—date and origin of the components of the Iliad, ib.—views of Mr Murray, 72—of Mr Lang, 73-77.

Hülßen, C., 'Roman Forum,' 104.

Hutchinson, J., his introduction to the 'Records of the Middle Temple,' 365.

I.

Inderwick, F. A., his introductions to the 'Inner Temple Records,' 365, 371.

Iliad, the, origin and date, 54. See Homer.

India, The Unrest in, 216, 254—increase of disaffection, 216-218, 221—dislike of British rule, 218—Poona the centre of the insurrectionary movement, 220—attitude of the natives during the Transvaal war, 221—contributory causes, 222—victories of Japan, 223—impartiality of the system of justice, ib.

Vol. 209.—No. 417.

—famine, 224—plague, ib.—educational system, 225-228—reform of Universities, 227—partition of Bengal, 228-233—impression created by the resignation of Lord Curzon, 233—diminishing importance of the Viceroy, 234—relations between Englishmen and Indians, 235—result of the presence of Englishwomen, 236—complexity of administrative methods, 237—faults of the Civil Service, 238—sedition of the press, 238-240—methods of the National Congress, 240-243—ramifications of the anarchist conspiracy, 243—result of war with another Power, ib.—character of Lord Minto's administration, 245—English agitators, 246—retired civil servants, ib.—demand for a larger share in the control of affairs, 247.

Inns of Court, The, 364—works on, 365—relations between the serjeants and masters, 366—earliest mention of a hostel, ib.—the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple, 367—Inns of Chancery, 368—Inns of Court, 369—origin of the Barristers' Roll, 370—members, 370-373, 384-386, 387—royal visits, 371, 379, 385—patent confirming the title to the property, 373, 377—the Benchers and Readers, 374—duties of the Treasurer, ib.—office of Referee, 375—rules and regulations, ib.—the Temple Church, 377—erection of the gateway, ib.—entertainments, 378-381—result of the civil war, 378—the Restoration, 379—plague, 381—rebuilding of the Inner and Middle Temple after conflagrations, ib.—the deed of partition, 383—'Master Worsley's Book,' ib.—rules for the admission of students, 386—General Council of the Bar, ib.

Ipswich, agricultural co-operative society, 306, 310.

Ireland, result of sectional pressure on the policy of the Governments 260—Universities Bill, 263—number of agricultural co-operative societies, 304.

J.

James I, King, vagrancy and begging in the reign of, 401.

Japanese immigrants, employment of, in Canada, 174.

John of France, King, 'Roman des Déduits,' 347-350.

Journalism, Modern, 524—journalists the Sophists of modern life, ib.—their object, 525—irreconcilable judgments, 526—charges against, 526, 528—position of the newspaper press, 527—reporters, ib.—political journalism, 529—system of party government, ib.—characteristics of the average journalist, 530—style of anonymous, 531—'Life of John Delane,' 532—his management of the 'Times,' 537—support of the party in power, 538—influence of Palmerston, 539, 543—raising the tone, ib.—examples, 539-542—position of Delane, 544—latter-day journalism, 544-548—results of the halfpenny paper, 545—morbid sensationalism, 547—low ideals, 548.

K.

Kimball, G. S., 'The Correspondence of William Pitt,' edited by, 324.

L.

Lanessan, M. de, his article on the recent history of the French fleet, 486.

Lanciani, R., his plan, 103—the 'Storia degli Scavi di Roma,' 104—extract from 'Ruins and Excavations of Ancient Rome,' 106.

Lang, Andrew, 'Homer and His Age,' 74.

Licensing Bill, 261.

List, F., his view of a nation without navigation, 479.

Loch, C. S., extract from 'Old Age Pensions and Pauperism' on reduction of pauperism, 159.

Lowell, A. L., extract from 'The Government of England,' 529.

M.

Mahomed Ali, 'Thoughts on the Present Discontent,' 219.

Marriage, the future of, 18-22.

Mason, J. F., on the value of agricultural co-operation, 316.

Maximilian I, King of the Romans, 'Das Jagdbuch Kaiser Maximilian I,' 360-362.

McLean, Prof. S. J., 'Canadian Problems and Parties,' 168—'Presidential Election of 1908'; 448.

Medieval Sport, 343—treatise by Emperor Frederick II, 344—'Le Livre du Roy Modus,' 345, 354—'Libro de la Monteria,' 346—'Roman des Déduits,' 347-350—'Le Livre de Chasse,' or 'Gaston Phœbus,' 350-354—'Master of Game,' 354-360—'Das Jagdbuch Kaiser Maximilian I,' 360—'La Chasse Royale,' 362.

Metcalfe, J., 'The Case for Universal Old Age Pensions,' 149.

Minto, Lord, character of his legislation in India, 245.

Mitra, S. M., 'Indian Problems,' 247, 254.

More, Mrs Hannah, her Christian philanthropy, 99.

Morley, Lord, his administration of India, 234, 245, 254.

Municipal Trade, 409—meaning of the words, 'socialistic,' 'socialist,' and 'socialism,' 410—result of transference of rights and properties to the State, 410-412, 422—advantages, 412—financial results, 413-419—gains to a city, 415—losses, 417—increase of taxation, 417, 426—parties affected by additional taxation, 419, 420—avoidance of waste, 420—competition, 421—investment of capital, ib.—employment of labour by municipalities, 423—privileges of the workman, 424—the stimulus of personal gain, 425—method of civic administration, ib.—municipal trade more costly than private, 426—American corruption, 427—restrictions in the functions of municipalities, 428—Report of the National Civic Federation, 428-430.

Murray, Gilbert, 'The Rise of Greek Epic,' 72.

N.

Navy, condition of the, 253.

New South Wales, system of old-age pensions, 156.

New Zealand, system of old age pensions, 155, 160.

Nietzsche, F., 'Zarathustra,' 1.

Northbrook, Lord, his mission to Egypt, 38.

O.

Odyssey, the, origin and date, 54.
See Homer.

Old-age Pensions, 144—support of the theory, 145—Poor Law of 1834, ib.—outdoor relief, 146, 162—number of paupers, ib.—Mr Booth's scheme of an universal pension of 5s. per week, 147, 150—Mr Acland's views on poverty, 150—Bills in Parliament, 151—proposals of T. Paine and Dr F. Colquhoun, ib.—Canon Blackley, 152—Royal Commission of 1893, ib.—Lord Rothschild's Committee, 153—the Chaplin Committee, ib.—systems in foreign countries, 154—New Zealand, 155—New South Wales, 156—Mr Asquith's 'Bill to Provide for Old-age Pensions,' 157, 262—reservations, 157—provisions, 158—Mr Loch on the reduction of pauperism, 159—Charity Organisation policy, 160—effect on the character of the poor, 161—cost, 163—Mr Sutherland's scheme, 164—Lord Avebury, ib.—rate of interest on deposits, 165—in connexion with national defence, ib.—Bill passed, 167.

Outdoor relief, system, 146, 162.

P.

Paine, T., his plan of a national fund, 151.

Parsons, Father R., his 'Three Conversions of England,' 91—head of the English College at Rome, ib.

Pastor, L., 'Die Reise des Kardinals Luigi d'Aragona,' edited by, 123.

Paupers, number of, 146, 162.

Pell, Albert, on the duties of landlords, 301.

Pensions, Old-age, 144. See Old-age.

Peril, The German, 264. See German.

Petrie, W. M. Flinders, 'Janus in Modern Life,' 3 et seq.

Plowman, P., on the evils of vagrancy, 391.

Plunkett, Sir H., his influence on the agricultural co-operative movement, 303—Ireland in the New Century,' 304.

Plural Voting Bill, 260.

Poole, Tom, his social reforms in Somerset, 99.

Porritt, E., 'Sixty Years of Protection in Canada,' 186, 188.

Pratt, E. A., 'The Organisation of Agriculture,' 303—extract from, 316—'The Transition in Agriculture,' 319.

Presidential Election of 1908, 448—Mr Taft the Republican nominee, 449—Mr Bryan the Democratic, ib.—important issues, 450—the negro vote, ib.—cost of the campaign, 451—currency system, 452–455—Socialism, 455—growth of Anarchism, 456—demands of labour organisations, ib.—injunction process, 457—Anti-Trust Act, 458—President Roosevelt's recommendations, 459, 469—views of Mr Taft, 459, 474—Independence party, 461—tariff reform, 461–465—prosecution of Trusts, 465–469—work of the Bureau of Corporations, 467—advantages of publicity, 468—railways traffic agreements, 469—provisions of the Anti-Rebate Law, ib.—imposition of fines, 470—'crisis of individualism,' 472—division of functions between Federal and State jurisdictions, 472–474—policy of Mr Bryan, 475—Mr Taft, ib.

R.

Rashdall, Dr, his history of the medieval universities, 365.

Ratzel, on the characteristics of seafaring nations, 479.

Reckless Government, A, 249. See Government.

Rees, J. D., 'The Real India,' 246, 254.

Ridgeway, William, 'The Origin of Tragedy,' 504.

Riviera, Antonio de Beatis' journey along the, 133.

Robertson, C. Grant, 'The First Earl of Chatham,' 321.

Rogers, A. G. L., 'The Business Side of Agriculture,' extract from, 317.

Rome, The Rediscovery of, 101—increase of the population, ib.—researches in the subsoil, 102—discoveries of inscriptions and works of art, 103—Prof. Lanciani's plan, ib.—Prof. Hülsen's 'Roman Forum,' 104—delay in publishing reports, 104, 111—prehistoric cemeteries on the Esquiline, 105—dis-

- coveries in the Forum, 105-111—excavations of the base of the round temple of Vesta, 111—the traffic problem of ancient Rome, 112-114—the Palatine, 114—the Pantheon, ib.—accumulation of archaeological material, 115—topographical literature, 116—rehabilitation of Roman art, 117—work and aim of the British school, 118, 121—Prof. Tomassetti's articles on the Campagna, 120.
- Roosevelt, President, result of his term of office, 448—favours the nomination of Mr Taft, 449—rash utterances, 454—attack on Socialism, 456—support of the Employers' Liability Law, 457—views on the labour problem, 459—on the tariff revision, 461—his 'Life of Thomas Hart Benton,' 461, note—on the naval programme, 485.
- Rozmital, Leo von, his travels, 123.
- Rushforth, Mr, his paper in the publication of the 'British School at Rome,' 111, 119.
- Russia, disappearance of the fleet, 491.
- Ruville, Dr von, 'William Pitt, Earl of Chatham,' 322.
- S.
- 'Satsuma' battleship, size of, 483, note.
- Schiemann, Prof. Th., his review of foreign politics, 283—professorial aide de camp to the Emperor, ib.—campaign of hostile suggestion against England, 284-288.
- Sea Supremacy, Our Endangered, 476—policy of the Government, 476-478, 488—naval activity and rebuilding operations, 478, 487—expansion of the German fleet, 479-482—members of the Navy League, 481—naval policy of William II, 482—the new Navy Act, 482, 489—evolution of the 'Dreadnought' type, 483—the Japanese battleship 'Satsuma,' ib. note—United States navy, 484-486—France, 486—renewed competition for naval power, 487—expenditure, 488—result of the peace manoeuvres, and naval reductions of the Liberal party, 488-490—foreign relations, 490—naval position, 491—distribution in extra-territorial waters, 492-494—financial policy, 494-496—personnel, 496—construction, 497-500—Prince Bülow's reply to the 'Quarterly Review,' 502.
- Scott, Sir W., his friendship with Lady Louisa Stuart, 205.
- Shaw, B., his 'Common Sense of Municipal Trading,' 413.
- Siegfried, A., 'The Race Question in Canada,' 177.
- Skeat, W. W., extract from his 'Malay Magic,' 522.
- Somerset, The County of, 78—characteristics, 79—five forests, 80—the river Parret, ib.—Abbey of Glastonbury, 81-83—style of architecture, 83-85—result of the Norman conquest, 85—Leodgaresburg or Montacute castle, ib.—fall of Exeter, 86—forts, ib.—operations against South Wales, 87—priory of Goldcliffe, ib.—conquest of Ulster, 88—Edwardian times and the wars of the Roses, ib.—notable men, 89-100—the 'Nether Stowey' set, 98.
- Sophists, compared with English journalists, 524. See Journalism.
- Soudan, policy in the, 39-44.
- Strong, Mrs A., 'Roman Sculpture,' 117.
- Stuart, Lady Louisa, 194—her letters, ib.—learning and accomplishments, 195—lonely girlhood, 196—literary works, 196, 206, 213—character, 197, 215—first visit to Scotland, 197—dislike of the national characteristics, 198—lovers, 199—views on marriage, 200—death of her parents, 201—criticism on the Prince of Wales, ib.—mode of living, 202—her friends, 203—at Mrs Montagu's levée, ib.—friendship with Sir Walter Scott, 204, 205—the gossip of country neighbours, 204—Highland tour, 205—love of romance, ib.—characteristics of her letters, 206, 212—criticisms on women, 206—Americans, 207—on true and false vanity, ib.—political views, 208-210—literary criticisms, 210-212—sketch of Lady Mary Coke, 213-215—memoir of John, Duke of Argyll, 215.
- Stubbs, P., extract from his 'Anatomy of Abuses,' 393.
- Sutherland, W., his old-age pension scheme, 164.
- T.
- Taft, Mr, candidate for the Presidency, 449—his record, ib.—views on the labour problem, 459—on tariff revision, 465—on the Trust problem, 467—policy, 475.

Tafur, Pero, his travels, 123.

Temple, Inner and Middle, 367. See Inns of Court.

Time-limit and Compensation, 549
—the Licensing Bill, ib.—the reduction period, 550—kinds of on-licences, 551—method of application, 552—the Act of 1904; 553—new grants of licences, 554—changes when the time-limit has expired, 555—uncertainties of possession, 556—monopoly value, ib.—the Ashby judgment, 557—the vested interest and expectation of renewal, 559—confiscation after 14 years, 560—value of existing licences, 560—562—accumulating a sinking fund, 563—financial strain on brewing companies, 564—their aggregate capital, 565—the tax to be annual, 566—568—market value of licences, 568—571—compensation in the 1904 Act, 571—the annual value, 572—574—depreciation of fixtures, 575—anomalies, ib.

'Times,' the, characteristics, 537—the organ of the 'governing classes,' ib.

To-morrow, Forecasts of, 1. See Forecasts.

Tour, A Grand, in the Sixteenth Century, 123—Antonio de Beatís diary of the travels of the Cardinal of Aragon, ib.—notable personages, 124—126—at Middelburg, 125—Rouen, ib.—on Leonardo da Vinci's pictures, 126—his taste in art, 127—129—churches, 128—tombs, ib.—the Fugger palace in Augsburg, 129—Brussels and Nassau palaces, ib.—palace of Blois, 130—Gailion, ib.—taste for scenery, 131—Mont Saint-Michel, 132—journey along the Riviera, 133—comparisons of places, 134—frontiers, ib.—national characteristics, 135—139—transport and food, 135—religion, 138—moral character, ib.—brigands, 139—characteristics of women, 140—etiquette of the embrace, 141—manufactures, ib.—cultivation, 142—Calais, 143.

Trade, Municipal, 409. See Municipal.

Trades Disputes Act, 260.

Tragedy, The Origin of, 504—invention of the Dorians, 505—the worship of Dionysus, 506—origin of the worship and its spread in

Greece, 507—510—mimetic dances in Attica, 510—in Argolis, ib.—Sicyon, 511—honouring of the dead, 512—516—the thymele of Dionysus, 516—the four great Attic festivals, 518—Satyric drama or 'sportive tragedy,' ib.—Thespis the founder of tragic art, 520—performance of 'Mysteries' and 'Miracles,' 521—the Ober-Ammergau Passion Play and the Hindu drama 'Ramayana,' ib.—plays performed by the Lamas of Tibet, 522—ceremonies relating to the Malay theatre, ib.

Tramps, Vagrants, and Beggars, 388. See Vagrants.

Treitschke, H. von, influence of his writings, 269—271, 589.

U.

United States, population, 169—banking system, 183—trade relations with Canada, 187—corruption in municipal trade, 427—Report of the National Civic Federation, 428—candidates for the Presidency, 449—cost of the campaign, 451—currency system, 452—Socialism, 455—use of the injunction process in labour disputes, 457—tariff reform, 461—prosecutions of Trusts, 465—naval programme, 484—486.

V.

Vagrants, Beggars, and Tramps, 388—causes leading to, 388—390—penalties, 390—ecclesiastical mendicancy, ib.—number, 391—maiming and injuring children, 392—advantages from the beggar's point of view, 392—394—in France, 394—practice of gross impostures, 394—396—resort, ib.—national modes of asking alms, 397—number in the reign of Henry VIII, ib.—number hanged, 398, 400—repressive measures, 398—400—in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, 399—condition of lunatics, 400—Harman's 'Caveat or Warning for Common Cursetors vulgarly called Vagabones,' 401—in the reign of James I, ib.—highwaymen, 402—life of the modern, 403—failure of remedial measures, 404—duty of the State towards children, 405, 408—indiscriminate almsgiving, 406—

- number of vagrants, ib.—establishment of labour colonies, 407—Hadleigh Colony, ib.
- Verrall, A. W., 'The First Homer,' 53.
- 'Victoria County History, The: Somerset,' 78.
- Vinci, Leonardo da, his pictures, 126—'The Last Supper,' 127.
- W.
- Waddington, R., 'Louis XV et le Renversement des Alliances,' 323.
- Walker, J. D., his preface to the 'Black Books of Lincoln's Inn,' 365.
- Wells, H. G., 'New Worlds for Old,' 6—'Anticipations,' 14.
- Whitman, Mr Sidney, his interview with Prince Bülow, 576 et seq.
- Wilkinson, Rev. J. F., 'The Blackley National Provident Insurance Scheme,' 151, note.
- William II, Emperor of Germany, his policy against England, 275—result of his visit, 280—his professorial aide de camp, 283—his naval policy, 479–482.
- Willis, J. J., and H. B. M. Buchanan, 'To Manure at a Profit,' 301.
- Women of the sixteenth century, their characteristics, 140—etiquette of the embrace, 141.
- Worley, G., 'The Temple Church,' 377, note.
- Y.
- York, Edward, Duke of, 'The Master of Game,' 354–360—illustrations, 359.

END OF THE TWO HUNDRED AND NINTH VOLUME.

